

Preparing Every Student for College Career and Life

Full-Time School Psychologist position now open with Phoenix Union High School District.

Come join our team if you love working in a vibrant environment with high school students ages 14 – 22. ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES shall include, but not be limited to the following: provide comprehensive school psychological services including evaluation of students for special education eligibility, consultation to address educational and mental health needs of students and effective collaboration with school and district teams to support students; providing counseling as a related service when determined necessary by an IEP Team. We are looking for an experienced certified school psychologist to maintain compliance with state, federal and district procedures and policies of special education while enabling students to derive educational benefit from their schooling, accomplished through assisting students having cognitive, academic, adaptive, social or psychological problems, conducting competent and complete multidisciplinary evaluations, and supporting and advising the special and general education team in placement and services provided to students. ADDITIONAL BENEFITS: We offer a competitive salary with comprehensive benefits (medical, dental, vision, life, sick leave). Salary advancement for advanced education. Excellent support network: work with an energetic knowledgeable group of colleagues as well as have the mentoring support from the Lead School Psychologist in the district. We offer District based trainings for professional growth and development as well as CEUs. Pension provided through Arizona State Retirement System. Focus on collaboration and inclusive services. Web based IEP, MET report, and billing/note recording system.

NOTE – CONTRACT VENDORS please do NOT contact the District

Apply online by visiting the Phoenix Union High School District at <https://www.applitrack.com/phxhs/onlineapp/>. If you have questions, please call 602-764-1101

The Phoenix Union High School District does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, or immigration status in admission and access to its programs, services, activities, or in any aspect of their operations and provides equal access to the Boy Scouts and other designated youth groups. The lack of English language skills shall not be a barrier to admission or participation in the District's activities and programs. The Phoenix Union High School District also does not discriminate in its hiring or employment practices